

Migraine Matters: What Psychiatrists Need to Know

May 1-3, 2021 | 11:10 AM - 11:30 AM (EST) / 8:10 AM - 8:30 AM (PST) each day

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

To improve the understanding of the relationship between migraine and psychiatric comorbidities and discuss integrated management approaches.

HUDDLE SESSIONS

SESSION 1: Migraine and Psychiatry: Where Do They Fit Together?

May 1 | 11:10 AM - 11:30 AM (EST) / 8:10 AM - 8:30 AM (PST)

Dr. Steven M Baskin

SESSION 2: The Burden of Migraine in Patients With Comorbid Psychiatric Diseases

May 2 | 11:10 AM - 11:30 AM (EST) / 8:10 AM - 8:30 AM (PST)

Dr. Trupti B Gokani

SESSION 3: Migraine and Psychiatric Disorders: Multidisciplinary Management for Quality Care

May 3 | 11:10 AM - 11:30 AM (EST) / 8:10 AM - 8:30 AM (PST)

Drs. Trupti B Gokani and Lex Denysenko

FACULTY PRESENTERS

Steven M Baskin, PhD

*New England Institute for Neurology and Headache,
Stamford, CT*

Trupti B Gokani, MD

*Saffron & Sage Holistic Center,
San Diego, CA*

Lex Denysenko, MD

*Jefferson Medical College,
Philadelphia, PA*

Annual Meeting of the American Psychiatric Association

Expert insights on tardive dyskinesia

01–03
May, 2021

Join us for our Teva-sponsored interactive
huddle sessions

Craig Chepke, MD, FAPA

University of North Carolina
School of Medicine,
North Carolina, USA

Tardive dyskinesia in clinical practice: Real or imagined?

Saturday, 01 May

3:40 PM–4:00 PM (EST) / 12:40 PM–1:00 PM (PST)

Do the APA Practice Guidelines discourage treatment of mild tardive dyskinesia?

Monday, 03 May

3:40 PM–4:00 PM (EST) / 12:40 PM–1:00 PM (PST)

To register for APA, please visit

<https://www.psychiatry.org/psychiatrists/meetings/annual-meeting>