

WEBSITE DISCLOSURES FOR DSM SUBMISSIONS

Prior to submission of any proposals on this website, the author must read and agree to the following terms.

I understand that any proposal must contain two elements: (1) suggestions of specific changes to the text of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) and/or diagnostic criteria sets; and (2) data and materials provided in support of such suggested changes.

The suggestions of specific changes to the text of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders and/or diagnostic criteria sets contained within my proposal represent original material, have not been published previously, and are not being considered or submitted for publication elsewhere while under consideration by the American Psychiatric Association. YES NO.

If NO, the suggestions of specific changes to the text of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders and/or diagnostic criteria sets contained within my proposal have been previously published or are being considered or submitted for publication elsewhere while under consideration by the American Psychiatric Association. The source(s) at which the suggestions contained within my proposal have been published or are under consideration for publication is/are:

I certify that the information provided above is correct.

Disclosure by all authors of financial relationships with any organization, commercial or otherwise, that may have a direct or indirect interest in psychiatric diagnosis, treatment, or the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) is required at the time of submission and again prior to publication in the DSM. Such reporting must include all equity ownership, profit-sharing agreements, royalties, patents, stock, cash, gifts, speaker fees, honoraria, travel funds, advisory panel payments, and research or other grants from private industry or closely affiliated nonprofit funds. In addition, financial support for the proposal must be disclosed, whether from governmental, nonprofit, or commercial sources. Nonfinancial forms of support, such as analytic support, or other assistance with preparation of the proposal, must also be acknowledged. The disclosure must cover the three-year period preceding the submission to the American Psychiatric Association and be updated prior to publication in the DSM. All relevant financial relationships are identified below:
