

AMERICAN
PSYCHIATRIC ASSOCIATION

Building A Career In PSYCHIATRY

Part 1: Medical School and Residency

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART 1: MEDICAL SCHOOL AND RESIDENCY

Introduction	1	Fellowship and Award Opportunities	25
How does one become a psychiatrist?.....	2	Duty Hours and Resources	25
CV, Cover Letter and Interview Preparation.....	2	State Medical Licensure	26
Is there a standard CV format?.....	3	Combined Training Requirements.....	30
What should I include?.....	3	Overview of the American Health Care System	31
How do I construct my work description entries?.....	3	Overview.....	31
Assembling your CV.....	5	What is managed care.....	31
What not to include.....	6	Medicaid.....	35
Printing your CV.....	6	Medicare.....	36
Resources.....	6	COBRA.....	37
Job opportunities.....	6	HIPAA.....	37
How GME Funding Works	7	Financial Management for Physicians	39
Navigating the Transition to Residency	9	Some simple tips.....	39
About the USMLE.....	9	Budgeting and debt management.....	40
About the COMLEX.....	11	What is “bad debt”?.....	42
Scheduling Clinical Clerkships.....	12	What is “good debt”?.....	43
Choosing a Residency Program.....	12	Short-term savings.....	43
Location, family and housing considerations.....	13	Planning for retirement.....	44
The Residency Application Process.....	14	Retirement account options.....	44
The National Resident Matching Program Process.....	15	Mutual funds and securities.....	45
Post-Match “Scramble”.....	16	Financing your children’s education.....	46
Residency Program Interviews.....	16	Loan Forgiveness, Repayment and Consolidation	49
Psychiatry Residency	22	Loan Forgiveness Programs.....	49
Competencies in Psychiatry.....	23	Loan Repayment Programs.....	50
Combined Programs.....	23	Loan Consolidation.....	50
Residency Training.....	23	Buying vs. Renting.....	53
Subspecialties and Research Training.....	24	Buying a Property.....	53

AMERICAN
PSYCHIATRIC ASSOCIATION

Building A Career In PSYCHIATRY

Part 2: Transitioning to Practice

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART 2: TRANSITIONING TO PRACTICE

Choosing Wisely—Assessing Practice Options And Demographic Locations	1	Medical Professional Liability Insurance	14
Practice Setting Options.....	1	Insurance—what is it?.....	14
Selecting a Geographical Location.....	4	Types of coverage.....	15
Lifestyle, Financial and Community Resources.....	4	Coverage and liability limits.....	15
State-specific information.....	4	Settlement clauses.....	17
Entering into a Physician Employment Agreement	5	Types of insurance carriers.....	17
5 Tips For Negotiating Your Contract With Confidence.....	5	The bottom line.....	19
Credentialing, Privileges and Authorization Numbers	6	Weighing Options: Medical Practice Startup, Purchase or Buy-In	20
Hospital and health plan credentialing.....	6	Starting a practice—12 basic tips.....	20
Physician authorization numbers.....	7	Considering your options.....	21
Hospital privileges.....	7	Where is the right location?.....	22
Continuing medical education.....	8	Start or buy an existing practice?.....	22
Disability Insurance	9	Forming or joining a partnership.....	23
How policies are offered.....	9	What is Integrated Care	24
Cost of disability insurance.....	10	Why is integrated care important for psychiatrists and their patients?.....	25
What to look for in a disability policy.....	10	How will I get paid?.....	26
Recovery benefits.....	11	What about liability for informal consultation?.....	26
Group long-term disability insurance.....	12	Will I still be able to provide psychotherapy in a private practice setting or will I be able to work only in integrated settings?.....	27
Disability insurance protection for retirement plan contributions.....	12	Will I need to have an electronic medical record (EMR) system to participate?.....	27
Protecting professional practices and professionals.....	13	To what extent will I be responsible for the medical care of psychiatric patients?.....	27
Planning options.....	13	What new skills will I need, and where can I get trained?.....	28

Is working in integrated settings professionally rewarding?	28	Table of contents	37
Medical Practice Valuation for Purchase or Buy-In	29	The executive summary	37
Why value a medical practice?	29	A sample plan	37
The question of value	29	Building Your Practice Through Marketing	41
Assumptions are essential	30	Developing marketing strategies	41
Pitfalls of self-valuation	30	Establishing a marketing budget	41
The competence of appraisers	30	Sample marketing plan timeline	42
The competence of the other party	30	Practice-building guidelines for the future	43
Using medical practice benchmarks	30	Building patient satisfaction	44
Scientific method	30	Practice services and amenities	44
Reality check	31	Standards of patient service for medical staff	45
Buy-in, purchase or startup—which is the best value?	31	Online and Yellow Pages advertising	45
Practice Startup: Corporate Structure and Asset Protection	32	Creating a medical practice brochure	46
Corporations	32	Brochure contents	46
Maintaining the integrity of a corporation	34	Employment Law: Questions to Ask and Avoid When Hiring	48
Protecting assets	35	Federal Tax Workshops and Information for Businesses	48
Writing Your Business Plan	36	Practice Management Assistance & Resources	49

AMERICAN
PSYCHIATRIC ASSOCIATION

1000 Wilson Blvd., Ste 1825 | Arlington, VA 22209-3901
Phone: 703-907-7300 | Fax: 703-907-1085 | Toll Free: 1-888-35-77924 |
Email: apa@psych.org | www.psychiatry.org