

Research Experiences in Psychiatry

Columbia University Department of Psychiatry

- Location: Manhattan, New York
- Overview: The Department of Psychiatry at the New York State Psychiatric Institute and Columbia University Medical Center provides research to IMGs.
- Duration: Usually starts in the fall for observers who commit to six to 12 months (either full- or half-time) and who have skills/interests that may be of use to a research team; attempts will be made to match to an appropriate site
- Cost: Paid by applicant
- Contact Information:
 - Margaret Hamilton, M.D., mis3@cumc.columbia.edu
 - Karen Cruz; karen.cruz@nyspi.columbia.edu, phone 646-774-7505, fax 646-774-6398
- Learn More: <https://rfmhhelp.nyspi.org/educationportal>

International Psychiatry Scholars Collaboration Affiliated with TTUHSC Permian Basin

- Location: Odessa, Texas (Remote)
- Overview: This is a remote research opportunity under the supervision of mentors from Texas Tech University, Boston Children's Hospital and Harvard Medical School. There is a weekly journal club each Saturday at 7:00 p.m. ET, with attendance mandatory at least three times/month. Presentation of a paper on a topic of interest is required during at least one journal club meeting. Supervisors are Shailesh Jain, M.D., M.P.H., A.B.D.A. (Program Director and Chair), and Zeeshan Mansuri, M.D., M.P.H.
- Duration: One year
- Cost: Free
- Contact Information: Zeeshan Mansuri, M.D., M.P.H.; zeeshanmansuri@gmail.com

Larkin Research Group

- Location: Remote
- Overview: Team 11 creates opportunities to conduct research projects at the local and international levels. Specific specialty groups exist for each area of interest. Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) certification is required before starting any project.
- Duration: Unknown
- Cost: Free
- Contact Information: Telegram channel, "Larkin's Team 11"

Research Experience in Psychiatry, Cont.'d

Maimonides Health

- Location: Brooklyn, New York
- Overview: For details, please apply directly via email. Accepted candidates must complete a medical clearance with U.S. lab tests. A preliminary in-person interview and orientation will take place with the volunteer department after a candidate has been accepted.
- Duration: Four-week research rotation
- Cost: Unknown
- Contact Information:
 - Anetta Raysin, D.O., Program Director; araysin@maimonidesmed.org
 - Apiyo Osanya, Residency Coordinator; psychresidency@maimonidesmed.org

Manhattan Psychiatric Center

- Location: Manhattan, New York
- Overview: This volunteer clinical research opportunity offers both clinical trials in the outpatient clinic and original studies in the inpatient state psychiatric facility.
- Duration: Minimum six months (full-time) to be considered as a candidate for a letter of recommendation
- Cost: Free
- Contact Information:
 - Jean-Pierre Lindenmayer, M.D.; jean-pierre.lindenmayer@nki.rfmh.org
 - Theresa Abad; theresa.abad@nki.rfmh.org